The time to fly has come.
It is a time of growth.
A time for blooming.
It is difficult.
It is painful.
It is time.
It is necessary.
How to face it with strength and grace, wisdom and intelligence...
It will be a process like every other moment in life.
One step at a time.
Determination, grit, and perseverance.
How bad do you want it?
All in your own hands.
Living in truth.
Doing what you can to live your best life.
To allow the universe to open
In its time and manner.
It is beyond our control...
We bring our energy
Our heart,
Our art,
To everything we do
Or do not do.
Hands,
In my hands,
In your hands,
In her hands,
In his...
In heart,
My heart,
Your heart,
Her heart
And his...
Take a chance
On a dream
Do the work
Take the time
Follow your heart
Take your future
In your own hands...
